Memorandum of Understanding Town of Florence Community Center and Renters

This Memorandum of Understanding is being created to communicate the Town of Florence's position on Renters of the Community Center throughout the Covid-19 pandemic crisis.

As the renter you certify:

- that you are responsible for following the recommendations and guidance in place for "best practices" in regards to the Covid-19 pandemic crisis by Local Health Officer, Center for Disease Control and Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation which include, but are not limited to:
 - Limiting the # of persons gathering to what current recommendations from Public Health Official (Florence County Health Department can be reached at 715-528-4837) and Center for Disease Control
 - Maintaining social distancing guidelines of 6'
 - Maintaining Safe Practices such as frequent handwashing, use of face coverings and other PPE for those in attendance. (provided by renter)
 - Washing and Sanitizing frequently touched surfaces – prior to, during, and post event – (renter needs to provide – sanitizer/cleaning supplies)
 - Encouraging attendees if they are ill or high risk to stay home from the event
 - That if an attendee to your event contracts Covid-19, the Town of Florence will be held harmless
